

About The Authors

We are two enthusiastic travelers, bloggers and photographers from the Czech Republic - Eva & Tomas. Our common passion is to explore new countries, taste unknown food, take photos and share our experiences with others. Together, we have traveled to over 50 different countries around the world, and we are creating a great team. Eva focuses on writing articles and Tom on the technical aspects of the blog and social media.

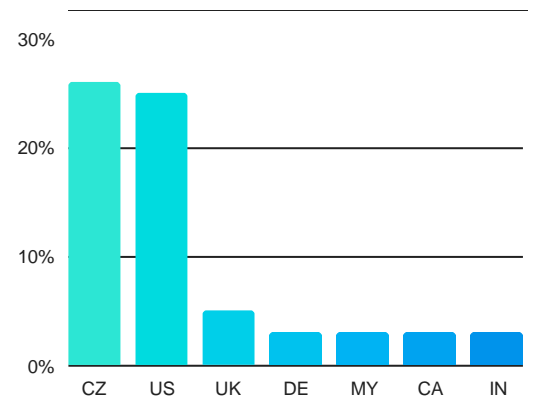

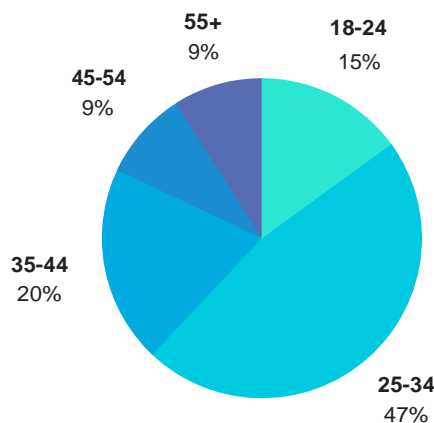

About the Blog

Our blog was founded at the end of 2016 and was mainly used to share the experience of our journeys. Our friends have always been asking us where we got such cheap tickets or accommodation, so we decided to write our advice in one place - our blog. Nowadays, we are focusing on quality and unique content based on our experience from different countries and the high quality of our photos. We are continually creating new ways to attract and engage with our readers.
